"END SATs" PETITION

Give teachers time to teach and children time to learn

We, the undersigned, believe that the Westminster Government should follow the example of the Welsh Assembly Government and remove statutory end of Key Stage tests at age 7 and 11 in England. Further it should recognise that, unlike the tests, teacher assessment supports, not damages, children's learning.

A joint message from the General Secretaries of the NAHT and NUT

Dear Colleague

Please support the NUT and NAHT's campaign to end SATs and for Assessment Reform by asking teachers and parents to sign the attached petition to the Secretary of State. Alternatively you can go to the our websites and sign the same petition electronically at www.teachers.org.uk or www.naht.org.uk.

We are keen to collect as many signatures as possible and are inviting teachers, parents, governors and other interested parties to sign. For additional copies please photocopy or download the petition from our websites.

Thank you and best wishes.

Yours sincerely

CHRISTINE BLOWER
NUT General Secretary

MICK BROOKES
NAHT General Secretary
